

“All About Drawing.”

Weekend Workshop At Strathnairn Arts Association

90 Stockdill Drive, Holt, ACT 2615.

Saturday/Sunday 29th/30th of August, 2009

10.00am to 4.00pm.

Conducted by Michael Winters.

The weekend will be devoted to drawing, drawing that looks at objects in a very observational way. How far apart one object to another is, what is happening with the tonal contrast of one object to the next, how do you describe the texture of one object to another etc.

Then a look at a range of drawing materials that will explore their different properties and how they are best used alone and in combination and what expressive qualities they have.

The drawings of a range of artists will be shown and their use of various materials will be highlighted. The artists will range from Brett Whitley, David Hockney to Rembrandt and Durer.

For further information contact Michael by email philhellene@hotmail.com Also, the enrolment forms can be emailed to Michael. Once you have enrolled a materials list will be sent to you.
